On December 1, 2006, Rule G of the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims, part of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, became effective. This new rule now governs procedures for civil and criminal asset forfeiture actions in the federal courts.

Notice of judicial forfeiture actions has traditionally been published in newspapers. The new rule now permits publication of forfeiture notices on a government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov), and this site incorporates these forfeiture notices that have been traditionally published in newspapers.

This site is currently fully operational, civil and criminal forfeiture notices will continue to be published in newspapers for a period of time before newspaper publication is eventually abandoned in favor of this website. The website will contain a comprehensive list of pending notices of both civil and criminal forfeiture actions in United States District Courts around the country.
